SUMMARY

Built by Mike Haywood in 1990, Duchess represents a fantastic opportunity to step straight into the UK liveaboard lifestyle.

Designed with long-term cruising in mind, she features an expansive main living area complemented by a second rear cabin—perfect for guests or a home office. At the center of the vessel lies her vintage JP3 engine housed in its own traditional central cabin. Modern conveniences include a Sterling 1800W inverter and a low-maintenance stainless steel water tank.

Following a 2024 survey, Duchess was freshly blacked, fitted with eight new anodes, and had all minor repairs attended to.
